

Friday, July 24, 2009

9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Wild Horse Wind Facility
Renewable Energy Center

25901 Vantage Hwy.
Ellensburg, WA

“The Power of Wind”

An All-Day Training on Inquiry-Based Learning and
The Science, Engineering & Technology Curriculum
of The National 4-H Curriculum Collection

From attendance at this workshop, you will receive: 6 STARS Credits, One set of “The Power of Wind” Curriculum, and access to hands on activities as well as effective teaching strategies.

This workshop is open to afterschool providers, teachers and 4-H leaders.

Sponsored by:

With special thanks to Puget Sound Energy for their beautiful facility and volunteering their time as presenters!

$30.00 per person includes:

STARS Credits and Lunch (to be able to accommodate dietary needs, respond by July 17)

Payment method—check or cash
(please make checks payable to “WSU Grant-Adams Extension”)

Registration limited to 40 participants (upon registration—confirmation, details, and directions will be sent out)

TO PRE-REGISTER: go to <http://grant-adams.wsu.edu>
Under “Save The Date”, print the form, fill out and mail to:

Jeannie Kiehn—WSU Extension
P.O. Box 37, Courthouse,
Ephrata, WA 98823

OR FAX to 509-754-0163

For questions, e-mail jmkiehn@wsu.edu
Or call 509-754-2011 ext: 409