

Meeting: December 4-H Call

Date: 1/12/10 Start time: 4PM End Time: 5PM
Recorder: Tiffany Boswell

Call in Number: 509-335-4700
Call ID: 4444 or 5555

Time Needed	Agenda Item	Who presents	Materials Needed	Summary
5 Min	Welcome/Protocol	Kevin Wright	None
15 Min	County Teen Representative Program	Jan Klein jklein@wsu.edu	Attached	-The County Teen Representative (CTR) program is a statewide leadership program for 4-H members in grades 7, 8, 9, or 10 who have been active 4-H enrolled members. -At the county level you have the flexibility to decide how members will be selected and for how long they can serve in this leadership role. -At the state level your CTRs will receive training and support. -There is a CTR program training on March 12-13 in Cle Elum. -If your county does not have a CTR program you are encouraged to attend the training to get ideas from counties who have a program in place.
10 Min	Know Your Government Update	Jan Klein jklein@wsu.edu	None	-Jan was running into a scheduling conflict with Legislative Breakfast because of a deadline that the House of Representatives is under.
10 Min	4-H State Review	Pat BoyEs boyesp@wsu.edu Mary Katherine Deen mdeen@wsu.edu	Sent to 4HTalk on 1/7/10	-Kevin Wright has contact the speaker and author Tom McKee The New Breed: Understanding & Equipping the 21st Century Volunteer to be the keynote speaker -registration is available at http://nutrition.wsu.edu/survey/FoodSenseAnnualConferenceand4-HSummit2010.html. -Pat is paying for the expenses of this meeting. She has asked that you be a frugal as possible. -you will receive TA numbers soon.

10 Min	Program Evaluation – Follow-up to Program Management meetings	Mary Katherine Deen mdeen@wsu.edu	None	-During the past two 4-H Program Days, the Professional Development Action Team (PDAT) has introduced to us 3 types of evaluation methods. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1.) Life Skill Evaluation System – Mary Katherine Deen2.) focus groups (interview) – Karen Poulin3.) use of existing data (observation) – Gary Varrella and Christy Price - At the March 4-H Program Days we will review the 3 types of evaluation methods and get in groups of learning cohorts.
--------	---	---	------	--

	Announcements	All		1 - Visit the Teen Conference website at: http://4h.wsu.edu/conferences/teenconf/index.htm to find workshop proposal forms. Proposals are due February 1. 2 - Bridget Rohner needs assistants with performing arts. If you can offer any support email Bridget at brohner@wsu.edu. 3 - If you are in the Spokane area on January 30, Spokane County and Lincoln-Adams KYG programs are jointly putting on a Talent Show/Dessert/Silent Auction at WSU Spokane campus 4 - Western Regional 4-H Leaders' Forum, March 11-14 in New Mexico, http://aces.nmsu.edu/4h/wrlf2010/. Washington is hosting in 2011. Dates are May 7-14. We will be Cruising to 4-H Excellence http://4h.wsu.edu/conferences/2011wrlf/index.html 5 - Community Partners for Kids Award. Presented to WSU Mason County Extension 4-H After School Program. For making a difference in so many children's' lives through our 4-H After School Program. Presented by Shelton School District Board of Directors. 6 – Question: How long does the county office need to keep applications for volunteers? Pat said 6 years for volunteers who are not active leaders. These documents included application forms, screening forms, a signed valuable partnership. However, she suggested longer if you have the space to keep the documents. 7 – Question about the WSU Volunteer Database http://ext.wsu.edu/test/Volunteer/logon.aspx -It is expected that volunteers will be entering their own hours. -The county office is NOT expected to enter the hours for volunteers. -County staff should encourage volunteers who do not have internet access at home to come into the county office to enter their hours or go to a local library to enter them. -The ONLY way to get the printed form is for county staff to contact Pat BoyEs directly. It is recommended that counties enter in the volunteer hours into the database however, it is NOT required. -Forms that are not enter into the database by either the volunteer or by county staff will be sent to Becky Priebe. Becky will NOT enter the information. The form will simply be filed.
Next Statewide Call – February 9th 4PM Statewide 4-H Summit – February 23 – 25, 2010 Spokane Next Program Management Days - Tuesday, March 23, 2010 Westside, Thursday, March 25, 2010 Eastside				