* Adams-Lincoln, Benton-Franklin, Chelan-Douglas are reporting as joint counties, beginning in 1999. 1998 totals were combined for comparison.

** Total WA Youth, K-12, taken from '98-'99 OSPI Public & Private Enrollment Summary (<http://www.k12.wa.us/HTM/infoserv.htm>). Statistics for home-schooled youth were not available. An unusually high 4-H percentage coupled with a low or no report of duplication of youth may indicate unreported duplication in youth group enrollments or that group enrollments reflect multiple-county programming.

*** Total with duplicates: Includes those participating in more than one delivery mode; duplicates are likely under-reported.

**** State Prog. : Stats include youth who participated in a program conducted by a State Staff Member.

Comments: This was the 4th reporting year using MarTech Blue Ribbon Software. Personnel in 38 counties managed their own data entry; data for 2 counties was entered by State 4-H Office personnel. An increase of 6,586 was reported statewide in unduplicated youth enrollment; total youth participation (including duplicates) increased significantly, 17,100; adult leadership increased by 202. Youth in clubs dropped by 1,853 statewide. Non-traditional delivery methods accounted for the large increase in youth participation, with Sch. Enrichment reporting a dramatic jump of 16,355; SAC reported an increase of 2,692; Sp. Interest/Day Camps increased by 229; Resident Camps increased by 113. Twenty (20) counties reported an increase in unduplicated youth enrollment; those increasing 500 or more this year included: Benton-Franklin, Clark, Pierce, Skagit, Spokane, and Whitman. The following counties reported a decrease in youth numbers of 500 or more: Ferry, Island, Kittitas, Klickitat, Snohomish, and Thurston.

Report prepared by Nancy Mordhorst, 4-H Program Coordinator, WSU Pullman. 2/00
